Our social purpose

To maximise the resources of civil society organisations for organisational purpose and front line service delivery.

We do this through trading practices designed to engage and benefit the sector and then use our trading surpluses to:

- Deliver free human resources services in a variety of ways
- Provide general advice and education to the sector regarding people management
- Provide development opportunities for aspiring HR professionals within the sector
- Provide employment opportunities to support those who find it hard to enter or attend at work

In fy 10/11 we delivered 100 hours of free consultancy support to 34 small to medium sized civil society organisations, provided 2 free 12 month subscriptions to our COMPLY service for social enterprises, delivered 16.5 days of free education and advice through speaking at events, running workshops, creating newsletters and factsheets; and created employment opportunities for 2 people who found it difficult to re-enter the job market.
